

ACEMS IMPACT AND ENGAGEMENT AWARD

The ACEMS Impact and Engagement Award aims to acknowledge and celebrate ACEMS members who actively engage in the translation of their research findings/outputs/insights to applications, use and uptake outside of academia. This award recognises research interactions with industry, Government, non-governmental organisations, communities and community organisations; and research contributions to the economy, society and environment.

The 2018 Award for Impact and Engagement – Group is awarded to:

NUMBAtS

Non-Uniform Monash Business Analytics Team

Di Cook

Nick Tierney

Dilini Talagala

Rob J Hyndman

Earo Wang

Sevvandi Kandanaarachchi

Mitch O'Hara-Wild

Stuart Lee

Nick Spierson

Thiyanga Talagala

ACEMS will provide $1,000 to your research institution in recognition of your efforts in this area. These funds are to use for the development of your research.

Please present this letter to your node administrator and ask them to invoice The University of Melbourne for the above amount.

Congratulations on your award.

Professor Peter Taylor – Director, ACEMS